Comments:

- I find that this has been a good format and environment to learn. I would have liked to have learned more about the different views of sociology that have solely emphasized Comte, Marx & Durkheim. Surely there must be other contributors to sociology out there. I would have appreciated more class time devoted to learning about these different contributors.
- He's awesome, best teacher I've had at MRC.
- Excellent course, excellent instructor.
- The instructor seems very interested and enthusiastic about the material he presents. Seems to enjoy teaching and is very willing to help students out.
- Bruce goes beyond the necessary as an instructor to help all his students learn. I am pleased with his class.
- I think that without the up beat way he teaches I would have a hard time staying awake in this class. He had a way of presenting new materials that kept me interested in the class.
- Bruce is a great teacher. He is very interesting and he makes the course very enjoyable. He is always well prepared for each class and he seems to really know what he's talking about.
- Bruce is an excellent instructor. You never want to miss a class. Informative and fun. I would have strongly recommended others to take Sociology - especially if they can get him. I'm considering possible career options in SLGY because Bruce has made it so interesting.
- Bruce is probably the best instructor I have had at MRC. He is always prepared and ready for class. He carefully lays out course objectives and makes sure the entire class understands what is expected of them. He makes himself readily available to all his students. I have enjoyed his lectures and recommended him to other students.
- I think he is an excellent instructor who really knows what he's doing and obviously cares greatly about his class and his student.
- This is one of the best courses I have ever taken. Bruce is animated entertaining and insightful. Some of my own views on things have changed because of this course. My only suggestion would be that Bruce makes a greater effort to encourage those students who remain passive to speak their views. Class dynamic is always better when everyone participates.
- Due to the workload in my program, one week is not enough time to prepare for an exam, which is worth 25% of my grade. Two weeks minimum is more preferable. This was my only weakness within this course.
- I really enjoy this class and the instructor. He has a great interest in this subject and it really shows and helps me to learn about sociology.
- I wish that he would go over the text book work with us a little more just for a clear understanding for the text chapters.

- Bruce is an extremely talented instructor in which he presents the material in a manner, which it is easy to learn. Thanks Bruce you're the coolest. You'll get the Jag one day!
- I think the instructor has been good in his presentation of material and the way he interacts with the students of the class. I do find the midterms a little unfair because it really doesn't test your whole knowledge of the course but only the three segments of each section of the course because of the set-up of the midterms.
- Bruce is very animated. When he teaches he puts all his energy into doing so. He gives clear examples to his teachings. He creates an open environment for discussion. I am always excited to come to his class because I always walk out with more knowledge.
- Bruce is an amazing teacher. I look forward to every class with anticipation because I always leave knowing a little bit more about the subject. It's apparent that he loves teaching the course in the enthusiasm that he brings with him to each class. Sociology was just an option for me but now I'm seriously considering pursuing a degree in it because of Bruce. I would and have, recommended him to fellow students thinking about taking sociology. Bruce is Great!
- Bruce is great at making the class interesting and the instructions are very effective. He is a very good instructor and knows what he's talking about and teaches so that I know exactly what he's talking about too. It's an awesome class.
- Bruce Ravelli is one of the best teachers I have ever had. I find that I am actually looking forward to attending his class and have not missed one yet! I really like his teaching methods and find that his sense of humor really helps the class. He relates personal life experiences into his teachings, which makes the class very interesting and humorous. He is a very good teacher and even think his marking is fair. The course content is interesting and exciting to learn.
- Bruce is a great teacher who makes each class fun and exciting for a class as a whole. I enjoy attending the class because of Bruce. He is one of the best teachers I've had, he has made me enjoy sociology.
- I think that this teacher is somewhat of a jerk. He has the air that he is the best and we should bow down to him. He is good but he has time for student's pre midterms, but he needs to settle down. Please stop acting superior. Thanks for the 4 question thing, it's appreciated.
- Bruce makes this course fun and interesting. I find myself listening to him at all times, unlike some of my other classes - I tend to daydream. Excellent job Bruce!
- I have very much enjoyed Bruce as a professor. His teaching skills are excellent and he makes wonderful reference to life situations as examples. I would definitely choose Bruce as my teacher for the future. He is easily approachable and gives the opportunity to receive extra help around midterm time. I went from an F on the 1st midterm to an A- through Bruce's help. My F wasn't at all related to his teaching skills but my confusion on the 1st essay question. I think Bruce is an excellent Prof.
- Bruce makes the class interesting and fun with his examples and theme characters. Compels me to come to class more often than I would a dry/boring class.

- Overall, I am very pleased with this instructor. His classes are very interesting and productive. He relates the course material very well to everyday concepts. He offers his students continuous support and makes every attempt to meet his student's learning needs. In general, he makes me want to look further into the study of Sociology. I would not hesitate to recommend him to other students.
