1. Bruce is a great teacher. My only concern is around his testing/evaluation. He asks a lot for a 2nd year course, which is alright, however, his marking reflects these high expectations. That can be discouraging if one has really put a lot of effort into the course, + doesn't do as well as anticipated.
2. The course is great and so is the instructor. The only thing I don't like is the peer review assignment. It is a good idea in that it gives students a break from their paper, and a chance to reflect on another student's work. As well it gives the writer effective feedback. However, it has absolutely nothing to do with sociological theory, and should therefore not be counted toward the final grade.
3. Bruce's class is challenging and makes me work hard to great good grades. Typically, I only give 75% in classes but in Bruce's I am motivated to put in 110%. I actually care what mark I get in his class and give my all because I respect his teaching and enjoy the material. Excellent class! One of my hardest but worth it because of the phenomenal lectures, and riveting material. (A+)
4. Bruce, you're a great teacher, I don't think I could ask for anyone better. I genuinely enjoy your class and I find your teaching style fascinating and very informative. I appreciate that you provide us with so much assistance outside class. Please continue to do so even though many of us have chosen not to use it yet. Your class really has changed my life and I really believe I'm starting to look at this from the sociological perspective. Thank you Bruce. By the way, I'm not sucking up cause I know you don't get these till after exams ☺ ...even though I might be good at it...
5. The powerpoint system you use is awesome! It would be nice if your notes were unavailable before lectures so I could focus on taking notes on the examples you describe in class, but then students may not attend classes, so I don't know how you could accommodate my suggestion.
6. Bruce, you are an excellent instructor. I do not have any complaints, except for the time on the midterm. I hated doing the paper but I know understand why you wanted us to do it!
7. Bruce use contemporary examples to explain theory. These examples help one to understand the theory better and relate it to the world around them. He marks papers and tests extremely fast which is a benefit to the students.
8. We did not have enough time to finish our exam. You did say that you would give more time next semester but that does not help us.
9. Needs to allow more time for testing or shorter tests + should make expectations of test answers clearer – more examples.
10. Professor Ravelli makes himself available for all students. He answers all questions and gives good direction. More prep time for the midterm and 3 instead of 4 questions would have been better. The 'A' mark seems unreachable.
11. You are very well planned out instructor. I enjoyed your class very much. You have taught me things and made me think of things in ways I didn't know.
12. Bruce is a hard marker but honest about that. However, I find that despite his difficult marking he is so helpful and probably one of the teachers I respect + have admiration for. I think he is incredible.
13. Going into this class I wasn't sure if I would like it. I have found the information and your teaching helpful and inspiring.
