1. Enjoyed your class & feel that I am learning allot. I had no idea what I has signed up for when I decided to take your class (what I really thought was that I was going to take an easy elective – boy was I wrong!). You sure freaked me out in the beginning & made me think that this was going to be a really hard class. It is allot of work (you should warn students that it is going to be allot of work before they sign up). However, because you challenged me, I over preformed. So thanks, because I am glad I have learned what I have. Also, it was a bit embaessing when you displayed my annonomous comments to the entire class – even the results were pleasing. Thanks! Loved you class & you're very entertaining.
2. Enjoyable class to be in, the teacher keeps it interesting with his stories and ways of explaining material. – One thing I've noticed is often he will when referring to the bible, attempt to downgrade it, and uses it out of context, and misquotes it without an understanding of it. If he's to use the bible as a reference he should take the time to read those portions and get a greater understanding of it before making judgements. This is not to say he does it a lot, just a few times I've noticed it being misquoted eg. "God has predetermined who will go to hell and heaven..!!
3. • Always leaves me thinking after each class • very good examples and stories • awesome instructor.
4. I enjoy this class above all others. I find it interesting and involving, if I actualy showed up, I feel I would do very well with Bruce's instructional style.
5. Bruce creates a great atmosphere where I feel comfortable expressing my thoughts. He is friendly and funny and makes the material interesting.
6. This course is delivered in a fun and interesting manner. Bruce is great at engaging his students and applying course content to areas beyond the college. I will say, however, that the expectation is extremely high for an intro-level class. Having said that, Bruce is informative and fair with tests and marking.
7. • You effectively communicate the material in this course and make learning about it interesting. Keep doing what your doing!
8. Bruce is a phenomenal teacher who captivates the class. My favorite teacher by far!
9. The instructor is very interesting and presents this class with a great environment to learn. He actually makes class less boring.
10. Bruce comes off as very good professor, he knows his stuff, know hows to get it across to students in way that is enjoyable, entertaining, and academic. Bruce also makes class one were it makes students want to come to. Overall excellent!
11. Good instruction and lets students know what the tests are going to be on and how to be successful. Makes lecture interesting and fun.
12. Personally I feel the way the exams are designed and marked is very hard. Possibly try shorter questions that cover more topics.
13. Bruce your class was great, very interesting. Your a good speaker. Has anyone ever told you that you resemble Jim Carey in dumb and dumber.
14. I really like your teaching style. It is very distinct from other professors. However, I feel that your tests are a bit long, and they can wear out your hands.
15. Really enjoyed the course! I also think for the future you should keep on marking both reading tests and not ask student to choice! I feel it is more fair that way.
16. I think Bruce is a wicked instructor! I would strongly recommend him to others. I am glad I had the opportunity to take this course with him as my instructor.
17. I really like the power point notes instead of you just talking and us writing. Also really like how you mark both test on reading tests.

18. Pretty good class Bruce! Feel as though I have been rewarded for my effort on the mini and mid term. Thanks for making me laugh every once and a while.
19. Bruce is a very knowledgeable instructor and he presents material in a interesting and fun way. I look forward to his classes.
20. Bruce is a good teacher. Very passionate and knows what he's talking about. Looks abit like Jim Carey.
21. Bruce is always making sure everyone understands what is being taught. He gives plenty of examples and makes class fun with his sense of humour. Bruce is a fair marked but an incredibly hard marked and it is difficult to obtain a good grade compared to other classes.
22. Did not feel the amount of time and effort I put into the course was reflected in my mark. Although I enjoyed the course very much I struggled with the structure of the major tests and felt there could have been some variation in the structure of the tests as short answer questions are not my strong hold. I also would of liked to see some kind of assignment were I could research a topic of interest from a sociological view.
23. My initial reaction to this instructor was not positive. I though he was arrogant and unapproachable. This impression has faded over the past weeks. This class has become more tolerable and I look forward to coming. As well I think the instructor's personality is quite similar to my own. Perhaps more of an effort to approach him would have been beneficial. Overall I would enroll in another class that he instructs.
24. I really enjoy your class Bruce. It is making me consider my currently selected degree. I enjoy how you correlate the material in the course so closely to "our" (the students) lives. I find your marking fair and those that state otherwise are people who procrastinate studying or only partially prepare for exams. My only suggestion to you would be to have an online testing site for your reader so we can prepare better for the readers reading test. Thank you again for being so fun and enthusiastic in class.
25. Bruce is obviously passionate about the subject, which comes across as he teaches it. I look forward to his lectures, but dread the exams because they are very hard. His class is very relevant to the area I wish to study (social work). I can see myself studying concepts in the future that were originally presented in this class. Bruce makes the material very understandable and fun. I want to take more of his classes!
26. • It has been a thought-provoking learning-packed class. • I found the exams were time-crunched and found it difficult to write short, technically worded explanations with all the required definitions. • I appreciated Bruce's orderly manner of making the classroom a strict learning environment. • I enjoyed the way material was presented...very entertaining! • It has been a pleasure and a priviledge to learn from Bruce Ravelli. Thanks Bruce!
27. – it is helpful and easier to learn and retain concepts when we are expected to use our own examples - keep using pre-midterms they are major help on what to expect on midterms, also help in preparation. – excellent at communicating and using examples.
28. I really enjoyed taking this course, it helped me look at society in different ways than I was used to. I think Bruce is an excellent teacher, he seems to know a lot about Sociology and seemed to be very interested in making sure we succeeded in the course.
