1. Keep up the great work. No complaints.
2. Good, fun and interesting class. Would recommend Mr. Ravelli to other people.
3. I think this was a really GREAT class, and I think that Bruce was really fair and treated everyone the same. I appreciated that not only did he have high expectations for his students but also for himself. The only thing I would have changed was his website.
4. Exceptional instructor, I really like how he teaches with the class interaction and relating to us. He seems very knowledgeable. One of my favourites at Mount Royal so far.
5. Simply the best professor ever, passionate about what he teaches and has a sense of humor. I highly recommend him to anyone. Sorta wished he taught all my courses ☺
6. This is my favorite class because of the instructor. I have recommended this course to many people and encourage them to take it. I also find myself talking about it practically everyday with different people because it is so interesting. I feel as though it is so interesting because of the professor, so thank you!
7. I really enjoyed the course and found Bruce to be helpful and knowledgeable. I think the "soc lab" should be scrapped though as so many people had problems with it. Could offer a % off for late assignments if within a certain time period (1 hour, 1 day etc.) Instead of an automatic "0". Overall I really think Bruce is a great teacher who cares about helping and offers to help students when they need it.
8. This course has inspired me to take another sociology course and potentially major in this field. I would like it if we could have the notes ahead of the class so I could know what were learning.
9. Sociology 1101 was one of my favorite courses in my first semester of university. Mr. Ravelli teaches using a wonderful interactive approach which keeps you wanting more. I could not possibly picture a more qualified teacher for this course. Great class, great experience and great atmosphere.
10. I felt privileged to be in Bruce's class. As the author of our text, Bruce has superior knowledge in the area of social work. My other feedback is that tests were quite difficult and I felt challenged to achieve my typical grade in this course. It did however cause me to work very hard.
11. Bruce is a great teacher. His class is interesting & uses examples that are relevant. His text is easy to read w/ lots of pictures, interesting bits of information. I enjoy coming to class & think he is a very fair marker. He outlines what is expected of you as a student, and gives old tests as a study resource that really helps. The class structure, learning material & %age breakdown is something I wish more classes would adopt. I would highly recommend him to other students & look forward to taking another one of his classes in the future. Bruce – I have really enjoyed your class. I leave each one looking at the world differently & always have something new to talk about with my peers.
12. Great teacher.
13. Bruce Ravelli is a highly qualified instructor who fosters a love of teaching. Bruce is always prepared and presents the course in a way that makes it extremely interesting. I believe that he should provide more feedback on exams as to clarify concepts. It seems that the course may be a little too difficult as over half the class dropped out, but the exam questions are often fair. I would highly recommend Bruce to students interested in Sociology and very much enjoyed his lectures.
14. Bruce made the class very interesting. Evening classes are difficult to attend but knowing how enlightening the class was made it easy to attend. Bruce pushed my thought boundaries every class and each time left me reflecting on the world and how it's history affects my present.

15. I'm sure you get this a lot, but great job teaching this semester. Picture of a fish. Your lectures are energetic and fun. While you still demonstrate considerable knowledge of picture of a mountain the concepts from rhetorical perspectives other than your picture of a cube own. I would only criticize the difference in the timeline between when we work on assignments ☺ online and when we talk about them in class!
